This World

VIRGINIA JENKINSON

Does anyone know the name of the rose featured on "Rose Days"? So many persons have asked us to name it and because we have been unable to learn its identity, we're passing on the inquiries to you. If there is anyone OUT THERE who knows, won't you be kind enough to tell us, so that we can tell others.

The Siamese cat that Alyce Herold's little girl, Linda, lost two weeks ago, has been found. Only a few hours after the NEWS was in the mail, Mrs. George L. Parr, 462 Mariposa, called to say that she had a Siamese cat visitor and she wondered if it belonged to Linda. It did, and now there is rejoicing in the Herold family. Alyce says she'd like to thank all of the kind people who fed their pet during its journey out into the big broad world.

In a chat with Mrs. Charles Louk the other day, she told us a very amusing thing. So many persons think of "Charlie" as Councilman Louk and as Mayor Louk that they often forget that he is also a working man. His wife says that many persons call their home to talk to him and when she says he's out working they show great surprise. Although the job of being Mayor of Sierra Madre is a big one, it also is a "labor of love" with no pay checks attached. Mr. Louk's business cards read, Charles E. Louk, general contractor, and that's just what he does for a living. He recently completed an attractive new medical building in Duarte, if you would like to see the latest example of his ability.

The world is full of perplexing problems. No one knows better than like or the publisher of a weekly newspaper. One of the most interesting of the perplexing problems to come our way recently concerns eight chinchillas.

We learned about these little creatures from Mrs. P. Witter, 169 N. Mountain Trail, who is looking for a caretaker for the eight fur-bearing animals which she inherited from her son when he married this summer. It seems that Mr. Witter now lives in an apartment in Pasadena and can not care for the chinchillas, so mother has been doing the baby-sitting for him.

Mrs. Witter would now like to give someone else her duties. Her ad says, "WANTED—caretaker for eight healthy chinchillas—your location; share profits; prefer breeder already owning herd of good stock. Call CU. 5-0077." We'll bet anything there's someone in the Sierra Madre area who can give her a lift!

HISTORICAL SOCIETY DINNER OCTOBER 23

The annual reunion dinner of the Historical Society will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse, Saturday night, Oct. 23, according to announcement made by President C. W. Jones this week.

Raymond Andrews has been named program chairman for the event which is one of Sierra Madre's highlights of the year. Convers Twycross will be in charge of tickets and Dr. Raymond Pease has been given the assignment of leading the group in old-time singing.

Other features of the evening will be announced in next week's NEWS.

Frankster's Joke Rocks Sierra Madre

The cannon at City Park spoke with a roar Tuesday night as the result of a dangerous prankster's joke that rocked the entire downtown area at 10 o'clock.

Police report that the explosion was caused by a home-made bomb placed in the old Howitzer by someone who, quite obviously, was playing with dynamite. Severe penalties can be imposed upon anyone caught in such a maneuver. The force of the bomb was so great that more than 25 telephone calls were made to the police department from throughout the city.

An unexpected development in the situation has arisen from the fact that people in Sierra Madre who have passed the cannon hundreds of times, are now asking about its history—where did it come from, and who gave it to the City? Nobody seems to know!

Hiestand War Service Record Set Straight

State and National Veterans Group Stand Behind "Eck"

AN ATTEMPT by a Los Angeles newspaper (The Daily News) to imply that Representative Edgar W. Hiestand had no record of military service to his country was branded today as "a political smear attempt" by veteran and political leaders throughout the district.

The Daily News story was based chiefly on a primary campaign piece of literature in which Hiestand was erroneously referred to as "a veteran of World War I."

In a statement to the Sierra Madre NEWS this week, Congressman Hiestand said: "During World War I, I was called to Washington to serve on the Army General Staff as a special assistant in the war plans division of the Army War College."

"My specific assignment was assistant business manager of the vital committee on education and special training. My department handled the Army's business relations and affairs of more than 600 colleges of the United States, which were being suddenly converted into officer training schools to supply the much needed officer personnel to the Army overseas and insure ultimate victory of our country."

"I served there until January, 1918, when I returned to my position as division merchandise manager of the J. L. Hudson department store in Detroit. During the ensuing six months, I received special assignments from the War Department and served as special settlements officer."

Bryce Tangren, primary campaign manager and currently public relations manager of Hiestand, told the NEWS that "while I personally wrote the copy for the bulk of the piece of literature in question, the agency added a biographical paragraph in which this error occurred and, unfortunately, it was not caught."

Schwartz Makes Statement
Tom Schwartz of Sierra Madre, who is general chairman of the Hiestand campaign, said today, "The literature which described Congressman Hiestand as 'a veteran of World War I' was an error. Mr. Hiestand who was in Washington at the time the error was discovered, ordered the immediate withdrawal of the incorrect literature. Later when I received a call from him, I personally destroyed as much of it as I could find. As a matter of fact, Congressman Hiestand has told veterans organizations throughout his district that he was not privileged to wear the uniform of his country. There are no references in the current Congressional Directory or any of Congressman Hiestand's present campaign material that would imply he is a veteran." Donald L. Warner, past department commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars, State of California and Louis K. Gough, past national commander of the American Legion, are among the many who issued statements this week denouncing the attack on Congressman Hiestand.

Mr. Gough declared, "After many personal contacts and meetings, I have never known Congressman Hiestand to misrepresent the role he played in World War I."

COUNCIL DECIDES TO LEASE POLICE CAR

The City will lease a second police car as a result of action taken by the Council at their Sept. 28th meeting.

Decision to lease rather than to buy a new car was made after considerable study by Council members. A representative of the Municipal Auto Leasing Company pointed out that a large percentage of municipalities are now using the leasing system because of its greater economy.

The City will pay 6½ cents per mile for the use of the car, a figure which will cover all costs including repairs, gasoline and tires, etc.

Dan Peterson Given Highest Scout Award

The highest rank that can be awarded a Boy Scout was given Dan Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, at the Mount Wilson Boy Scout District Court of Honor Monday evening at Sierra Madre School when he was given the coveted Eagle badge.

Eagle Scout Peterson, a student in Pasadena high school, has distinguished himself in many fields since entering Troop 1 in 1949. His work as a student architect received national recognition when he won a Ford Industrial Arts award for his architectural plans and models in 1951. A member of the swimming team while attending Marshall Junior High, he also served as safety commissioner there in 1952.

In May 1951, young Peterson entered the Sea Explorer Ship here, served as crew leader in keeping the organization intact, and now has the rank of boatswain. He also received the Citizenship Award when in the 10th grade at Marshall.

Following the Court of Honor Monday evening, Eagle Scout Peterson was given a reception at the home of his parents, 71 Suffolk, where he was honored by a cake with an Eagle insignia in the company of his friends, some of whom are Sierra Madre Scout leaders.

DANNY PETERSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, 71 Suffolk, receives Eagle award, highest honor in Boy Scouting at the Mount Wilson Court of Honor, held in City School Monday night. Newell Barrett makes presentation to young Peterson who is a member of Explorer Ship 391, as pleased parents look on.

Rasmussens to Erect New Building on Boulevard

The downtown space between Hotel Sierra Madre and Club Sixty with the residential address of 52 West Sierra Madre Blvd. will no longer be known as "that vacant lot." Long considered one of the city's most desirable business areas, the land totaling more than one acre has been bought by Mr. and Mrs. John Rasmussen, proprietors of Rasmussen Appliance at 43 N. Baldwin, who plan to move into a new appliance store after completion of its construction at their new boulevard address soon after Jan. 1.

The Rasmussens, who began their business at the Baldwin address Aug. 15, 1946, with one washing machine and miscellaneous items, are making a total investment in land and building of approximately $60,000 for their new enterprise. The rapid growth of Sierra Madre in recent years, plus the tremendous volume increase in their business, are reasons for their move.

The new building will contain two stories, each with a 33-foot front, and will extend 80 feet to the rear where the larger section of the L-shaped property will offer a large parking area. The Rasmussens, who will occupy one of the stores, have announced no other tenant so far.

Certain departments of miscellany in their present store will be discontinued to make room for an expansion of stock in washing machines, dryers, refrigerators, deep freezers, and electric stoves, radios, and sporting goods. Products by General Electric, O'Keefe & Merritt, and Maytag will be featured.

The two-story white house, one of the oldest in Sierra Madre, which stands at one portion of the rear property, is now occupied as a residence and will not be razed at the present time.

Sale of the property, belonging formerly to Mrs. Helen R.

Co-ordinating Council Hears Preliminary Cemetery Report

A preliminary report on the Co-ordinating Council's survey to determine the steps necessary to form an association for the restoration and care of the Sierra Madre cemetery was made Tuesday night by Council appointed Walter Goodwin.

The findings contained in Mr. Goodwin's report were so complex and confusing that it was decided to wait for further clarification before taking action on the project.

Mr. Goodwin's outline revealed that the Sierra Madre Cemetery Ass'n was formed about 1907 under a charter of the State of Arizona and that the organization was never incorporated in California. Stock was issued and grave plots were sold, these two items being the only source of income with no provision for perpetual care.

Until 1933 the affairs of the corporation were handled by the corporation officers. About this time the plot book was turned over to the local mortuary where it can now be found. All moneys received by them have gone for bills. Income from the sale of plots is understood to have come to a standstill in 1937 when most of the plots were sold.

No taxes, water bills or other expenses have been paid on the cemetery since 1938, it is understood.

Mr. Goodwin told the Council that much of the information he has gathered was by word of mouth and that many points required further study before an accurate picture of the situation could be given.

Because a large number of Sierra Madreans have shown an interest in establishing an association for the care of the cemetery, it was decided to ask a representative group of these persons to be present at the next Co-ordinating Council meeting when several plans, accompanied by the legal aspects of the proposals, will be presented.

Report on School Site

A report from Mrs. Charles Siegle, representing the Citizens Committee for the Selection of a High School Site, was heard at the meeting in which it was learned that Los Angeles County and Pasadena are expected to come nearer a decision on the Victory Park location, a site much favored by Sierra Madreans, by the end of this week.

Mrs. Siegle recommended that local groups withhold action on the matter until the work now being undertaken by the Pasadena group is completed.

DEMOS TO CHARTER BUS FOR BOWL RALLY

The Sierra Madre Democratic Club has arranged for a bus to carry Sierra Madreans and Hastings Ranch residents to the Adlai Stevenson rally in Hollywood Bowl Saturday evening. The bus will pick up the Sierra Madre group at the Triangle in downtown Sierra Madre at 6:30 p.m. and will also stop at Hastings Ranch. This will save local groups from traffic and parking, a spokesman for the Democrats said today. The round trip fare will be one dollar. Reservations must be made in advance, however. Newell Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lathe and Lee Shippey will accept reservations.

Ten Flood Questions Discussed at Council

Lifting of Lima Street Crown No Answer to Area's Problem

BY ED JENKINSON

At an adjourned meeting of the City Council held Monday night for the purpose of studying emergency flood control measures, City Administrator Lawrence Bevington reported that the removal of the controversial "crown" or convex form of Lima street would not reduce the flood hazard in that area.

Bevington's report covered 10 items on which Councilman Harold F. Roberts as chairman of the Flood Committee had requested specific information at the regular meeting of the Council three weeks ago. At that time Roberts emphasized the need for an immediate survey before the rainy season starts.

After last year's flood emergency, considerable public agitation was expressed regarding the Lima street crown. But City Administrator Bevington said that the conclusions of the survey were surprising, even to himself. The east side of Lima street is lower than the west, in some places to such an extent that the top of the east gutter is on the same level as the bottom of the west gutter. Removing the crown, therefore, would divert all flood water to the east side of the street, causing more overflow into private property on that side than before.

Councilman Roberts commented that, in view of this report, and the temporary nature of the emergency, it would be impractical to alter and repave the street. Underground drains will be constructed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers within approximately two years, necessitating another paving of the street then, he pointed out. City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn remarked that to change the construction of the street could be legally dangerous. Said he, "You must not design your streets so that water will pour on to personal property (at or below Orange Grove Ave.). You should not re-design Lima into a water-course, but you are entitled to put up temporary boards to protect personal property."

This comment was made in connection with the proposal to erect planks from 12 to 18 inches high at or near the curbs, thus providing the cheapest and most efficient method of property protection, and increasing Lima street's water-carrying capacity 2½ times. This project will require about a carload of lumber, and Mayor Louk recommended that it be saturated with creosote or similar preservative, for use on City construction after the emergency.

Other flood control subjects covered by Bevington's report were as follows:

Lateral drains on Baldwin and Lima: The Council requested Attorney Cornyn to prepare a resolution to the effect that the City will cooperate to the fullest extent with the Army Corps of Engineers, by constructing lateral drains along Baldwin and Lima to connect with the underground drains built by them approximately two years hence.

Intersection, Carter and Lima: Recommendation to straighten this intersection, allowing Floral Canyon floodwater to flow into Lima street.

Lima and Orange Grove: This fall it is expected that Los Angeles county will purchase property on the southeast corner of this intersection. After such purchase the City will construct a ditch, diverting the flow from Lima street into the Arcadia Wash.

Yucca Trail: If the City will furnish manpower and supervision, the U. S. Forest Service will build a crib dam at a cost to the City of $3500. Without their cooperation, the cost of building such a dam would be $8750.

West Canyon: The cost of building a debris basin here would be from $40,000 to $50,000. Since only two homes are endangered, it is not deemed practical, for the present, to incur such heavy expense in this area.

Carter and Baldwin: No recommendation yet can be made, until plans of the Corps of Engineers are ascertained.

Protection to Auburn reservoir: Bevington has requested a meeting with the Army Engineers, to learn from them

ABOVE ARE PICTURED two happy fishermen, Paul Enterline and Norman Dumas. The white seabass does not look as happy as its captor, Norman Dumas, who brought in the rare catch last Sunday while fishing off the boat Maureen out of Oceanside. It weighs 40 pounds and is said to be one of the biggest members of its family to be caught this year.

OVERSEAS MAILING DATES ARE SET

It hardly seems possible, but it's true that Christmas is just around the corner again. At least that's what Uncle Sam says when he thinks of all of those overseas deliveries he's expected to make before Dec. 25th to service men and women throughout the world.

Assistant Postmaster A. H. Embree announced this week that overseas packages should be mailed from Oct. 15 to Nov. 15. Air mail packages should be in the mail not later than Nov. 21. Packages for air mail should be limited to 2 pounds in weight and should not exceed 30 inches in combined length and girth.

"Eck" Coffee Hours Planned For October 14

If you'd like to meet Congressman Hiestand you'll have plenty of opportunity on Thursday, Oct. 14. On that date your Representative in Congress will spend most of the day with Sierra Madreans in a series of Coffee Hours.

The Coffee Hours which are becoming increasingly popular throughout the country, will begin here at 9 a.m. on the 14th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hawkins, 415 N. Lima, phone CUster 5-2862. At 10:30 a.m., Mrs. Hugh Colvin at 336 Sturtevant, will give a similar function, phone CUster 5-0322. The afternoon "hour" will have Mrs. Colin Timmons as hostess. Her address is 49 W. Orange Grove Ave., CUster 5-1116.

All persons who are interested in getting acquainted with "Eck" are cordially invited to attend any of the above listed functions. If you are planning to go, the hostesses will appreciate a call from you. Their phone numbers are listed above for your convenience.

Two other "get acquainted" visits from Hiestand are planned for Hastings Ranch. One is on the 21st and the other the 29th.

Richard Graves Says Water No. 1 Problem

Despite unfavorable weather, local Democrats were pleased with the crowd which greeted Richard Graves, Democratic candidate for Governor, when he arrived in Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, Monday, Oct. 4. Graves, sponsored an old-fashioned political picnic at Sierra Villa park last Sunday.

"Every year more than 160,000 heads of families or others needing employment move into California and another 100,000 graduates of our high schools and colleges need jobs. Therefore, to keep pace with our present standards of living, our economy must provide a quarter million new jobs every year and we are failing to do it. More than twice as many Californians are drawing unemployment insurance now as were drawing it in April," Mr. Graves told his audience.

Mr. Graves attributed this increase in unemployment to lack of far-seeing business administration. For 10 years Governor Warren fought for a state water plan, but nothing definite has yet been adopted, he said.

Mr. Graves urged that tide-lands old money be spent for new schools, a new hospital for the mentally ill and other greatly needed state improvements. Mr. Graves said that a sound program of expanding economy would not only create jobs, and business activity, but would save Southern California from what may be a desperate lack of water.

If elected, Mr. Graves said that he would raise the head of the State Water Resources Board to cabinet status and make a water plan for the entire state a first imperative. "It is the duty of the state," he said, "to do all possible to protect all of its citizens from the dangers of forest fire, blood and drought, and to do all possible to provide full employment."

Mr. Graves was introduced as "one whose entire career has exceptionally fitted him for efficient and coordinated business administration, having served for many years as head of the League of California Cities."

James Dale, president of the Monrovia Club, read a San Francisco dispatch from the Los Angeles Times stating that since the June primary 154,435 more Democrats have registered in California and 66,813 more Republicans, the total registrations now showing 3,266,439 Democrats and 2,415,225 Republicans.

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

It's appropriate for election to come in the midst of football season, for politics and football are similarly rough and tumble sports. Nobody goes to a football game to cheer for the better team. Everyone goes to root for his team and hope it wins, no matter how. At that, football has it all over politics for a clean sport, because it has recognized rules and referees, umpires and linesmen to penalize unfair play. In politics each side can accuse the other of cheating, lying and what not, and all you have to go by is the loudest voice.

I wish custom required all rival candidates to appear on the same platforms at the same time, giving each his allotted time to speak and then his allotted time for any rebuttal to any assertions his rival made. That would be the only way to get many to hear both sides. The rules should also provide that anyone who made charges he could not prove, or denials of charges his opponent could prove, should be penalized so many votes, just as dirty play in football draws a penalty of 15 yards. Politics ought to be the grandest game on earth, not the least sportsmanlike.

The above doesn't mean I object to anyone's making accusations which are true and which the public should know about, and for which the accuser takes full responsibility. It isn't slinging mud when you uncover mud that's been covered up by some guy who got it on himself.

"Now turkeys come already stuffed!" exclaims a full-page advertisement in color in The Times. Isn't that just ducky? Pretty soon the scientists and food-packagers will arrange it so all a housewife has to do is press a button and pre-cooked turkeys, pies, biscuits and deserts will pop out. But really to thrill mere man they should come up with a pre-carved turkey, like ready-sliced bread. In the old days carving was a gentlemanly art, and the master of the house did it with a flourish. In these degenerate days most of the carving is done in the kitchen, by the wife or the cook, because the average man might be so awkward the noble bird would slosh off on the best tablecloth or into someone's lap. When the pre-carved turkey comes, as surely it will, we men may get some chance to reassert ourselves.

The one thing the World Series proved is how wrong the expert forecasters can be. Wednesday morning of last week the odds were 2-to-1 on the Indians. Friday afternoon they were 10-to-1 on the Giants.

point out a few things to Lee Shippey—perhaps one of those housewives he mentioned in his last column.

First, let me say that although he and I are evidently on opposite political sides I usually read the column because I believe in looking at both sides of a question. I think most open-minded people do.

I feel that Mr. Shippey has good reason to be proud of a son who is a Captain in the Air Force as do all the rest of us parents who have one or more sons or daughters in the armed forces — now and in World War II. The thing to remember is that these service people have been serving in many places and under different circumstances. Consequently they all come home with different stories. Some, like a young man whom I know very well, have served in practically every theater of war—during the last war. His outlook is naturally broader than say a young man who has been in one location.

Our viewpoints are usually colored by the contacts we have had with certain peoples. I often think of a caller in my home many years ago who, having made a southern trip, was very much put out with Kentucky in general and the city of Louisville in particular. He remarked that "all" the women down there chewed tobacco or smoked pipes. I am not a Kentuckian but I do have a few relatives and many friends there and from there who are fine citizens and I have visited that beautiful state and colorful old city. We made no reply to this man but we knew the kind of friends he had down there. I am wondering just what kind of Chinese people Mr. Shippey has dealt with.

I am sure that many parents who have lost sons in Korea could not agree with Mr. Shippey's ideas about Formosa and Chiang Kai-Shek. The Russians have been fighting us for quite a spell now. No—not they themselves; they are letting the Chinese Reds do it for them. What is wrong with our letting Chiang's fighters (who want to fight for a good reason) do a little fighting for us? Ask a father who has lost his son that question.

Now, as to our sons marrying over there. He is right in one statement; it always happens in occupied countries. I can remember quite a few fine Russian girls brought back from Europe after World War I, Germans, too, etc. They made fine wives and neighbors. As for the Oriental, that is up to the boys and girls if they wish to marry them. We, as parents, can play quite a part here; also the kind of training we gave them as children comes in here. How are we going to accept these people into our families? We can either help to make such a marriage a success or we can help to make it a failure. It is up to us. I would like to recommend two books for reading: "Fifth Chinese Daughter" by Jade Snow Wong and Pearl Buck's "The Hidden Flower."

With more cooperation from parents our orphanages might have fewer children of mixed marriages. A child who is half American and half Chinese should have the privilege of choosing which he wants to be. Believe me, he would not always choose to be American but we could hope that by our good examples as Americans and Christians he would like us enough to want to be American.

There are many fine old Chinese families who can trace their lineage much farther back than any of us. The same goes for any country, including our own. We have our fine families and some that we are not so proud of. Of one thing I am sure, some Chinese people must not be very happy at seeing themselves referred to as "dirty Chinks." At the moment I am thinking of a Chinese M.D. May I add, too, that if some of our children were as carefully reared as the Oriental child we would probably have fewer headlines of the kind we see lately.

And what, may I ask Mr. Lee Shippey, is wrong with "flag waving"? We see fewer and fewer flags on display. Why? It is considered old fashioned? Are we afraid someone will accuse us of flag waving? Just once I saw the United Nations flag above ours and my blood ran cold, then hot. It didn't happen again. There is only one flag, my friends, that flies above the Stars and Stripes and that is the Christian flag. When we can't get along with our neighbors we are not ready for world government. I once told an audience that I wanted to get back to the place where when the flag is unfurled I get a big lump in my throat—and I still mean it.

Nursery School "Clothes Carnival" Called Hit By 700 Viewers Last Saturday P.M.

"The best fashion show yet," is the consensus of opinion of the 700 guests who attended the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Auxiliary's "Clothes Carnival" last Saturday. Guests were greeted at the entrance of the Stephen A. Compas gardens in Arcadia by masses of balloons, setting the keynote for the "Carnival" theme. In the gardens balloons of all sizes and shapes in carnival colors swayed in the breeze, some helium filled and tugging at their strings. A gay covering of shaded pink strips of crepe paper provided protection for those in the badminton area.

Ice carvings, tinted by colored lights, decorated each table, the two end ones Trojan horses, and the center one a gorgeous cornucopia out of which spilled small coconut cakes in pastel colors. The sculptured ice and catering was done by John J. Golden of Sierra Madre.

Junior hostesses, dressed in gaily colored ballet costumes, collected plates and cups in decorated boxes as guests finished their refreshments. On each chair was a smart looking and informative program and a "Clothes Carnival Cache," a bag of favors donated to the affair.

Mrs. Kenneth Pruitt, co-chairman of the show, gave the welcoming words and introduced guests of honor, Mrs. Stephen A. Compas, Mrs. Marjorie Green, director of the Nursery School, and Mrs. Charles Roth, Auxiliary president. Mrs. Andy Hedblom, chairman, added words of appreciation to all who had worked so hard to make the affair a success, and then Virginia Sayles was introduced, who presented the adult styles and acted as commentator.

Charming professional models displayed 71 beautiful dresses, suits, and coats, advance styles hand-picked from top California designers. Color was predominate in new and luscious shades, and soft, comfortable lines gave the clothes that delightfully feminine look which is so new. The final surprise came with the showing of Don Loper's "White Christmas," a white lace formal dress, with a white satin reversible evening coat, completely lined in vivid green satin.

The adult showings were interspersed by two groups of children's clothes, shown by Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe of Youngland, Sierra Madre. Play clothes, school clothes, and party clothes that would delight any youngster were displayed by seven local small models.

An added feature of the afternoon was the introduction by Mrs. Sayles of designers present whose clothes were being shown. These were Marjorie Michael, Mildred Roenig of Billy Dee, Georgia Bullock, Mr. Marvin Goldman, president of Marjorie Montgomery, Loretta Fredericks of Loretta Originals, and Elaine Terry and Kathleen O'Brien, both from Elaine Terry. Terry Howard, of Harper's Bazaar, was also present and introduced.

Santa Anita District YMCA Belongs to Local 'Chest' Family

One of the organizations benefiting from the local Community Chest drive is the Santa Anita District YMCA, of which Sierra Madre is a member. Others in the district are Monrovia, Arcadia, Duarte, and Rosemead.

During the past year, Sierra Madre residents have had the opportunity to enroll in the YMCA program which includes Y Indian Guides, a father and son activity, and the Gra-Y Club meeting every week under the direction of David McDonald at the Sierra Madre School in a program which includes leadership training, worship services, and physical and recreational activities pertaining to the needs of youths in grade school ages.

Sierra Madre boys also may join the Santa Anita District YMCA in recreational and sports programs such as those in which two Sierra Madreams, Paul and David Love, distinguished themselves last year. Annual highlights of the Santa Anita District YMCA curriculum recently have included participation at Camp Bluff Lake in the mountains, Camp Orizaba on Catalina Island, and Camp Arbolado owned by the Whittier YMCA. Fifteen Sierra Madre boys attended Y Camp this last season, with 35 more attending the popular Day Camp held in Monrovia and Arcadia parks.

Adults from Sierra Madre also have been among those to attend the Men's Breakfast Club, which includes sports and social activities, in Monrovia and Arcadia. Women's swim classes have been included in this adult program.

The Santa Anita District YMCA, not having building facilities, uses community resources. Membership is open to anyone, at 8 years of age or older. Exception to this is the Indian Guides, where youngsters may start at the age of 6.

Members of the YMCA district here include Samuel Kirk and Norman McDonald.

Carl Colt Retires After 32 Years With Same Company

Carl Colt, a resident in Sierra Madre with his wife, Zoe, since 1941, has announced his retirement as vice-president and treasurer of Summers California in Los Angeles.

After 32 years with the men's wear manufacturing company, Colt plans to retire with his wife to a new home in San Clemente within a few months while still retaining an interest in his business. He will serve as secretary of the corporation and will continue as a member of the board of directors.

Colt, who joined Summers California in 1922, was elected president of MAGIC—Men's Apparel Guild in California—in 1938, and was named vice-president and treasurer of Summers one year later. He also served on the board of the California Fashion Creators and was active in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce for many years.

A director of the Better Business Bureau, Colt also is a member of the Rotary club in which he expects to continue his affiliations. He is well known throughout Southern California as an influential participant in many other progressive organizations, including his service as chairman of the domestic trade committee in his Chamber of Commerce work.

When not too busy in his many business and civic activities, Colt devotes part of his leisure time to playing piano, gardening—and has announced that, once established at his beachside residence, he intends to become a "whale watcher."

Mrs. Colt, an artist in oil painting who has studied with Alfred James Dewey of Sierra Madre, has been best known for her landscapes but may soon be devoting more time to seascapes.

The Colts have one daughter, Mrs. Robert De Weese, who lives with her husband in Sierra Madre, and one granddaughter.

HORSE AND BUGGY DAYS ARE GONE

There is no disease or disturbance of health which does not involve the nervous system. Chiropractic is that branch of therapeutics which specializes in treating all diseases or conditions through the nervous system rather than by drugs or surgery. Injuries and irreversible pathology may require sedation or surgery which we recognize as outside the scope of our preferred practice. There is an urgent need today to remind people that the modern chiropractor treats chronic and acute diseases and disturbances of bodily function of almost every kind. Treatment of stiff neck, lumbago, and sacro-iliac strain is only a small part of his daily practice.

Practically all physical functions of the body are under the control of the unconscious portion of your nervous system—in other words, NOT under the control of your will. Obviously then, in all health disorders the unconscious or autonomic nervous system is involved. This poses a most important question. Since the will has no power to alter these disturbances, is there no way to gain control of health disorders through the nervous system?

Indeed there is!

This fact is the basic idea upon which chiropractic is founded. But much progress has been made in the past 50 years. In the early days chiropractic relied entirely upon adjustment of the segments of the spine to promote health. Those same days were also truthfully characterized as the "horse and buggy days" in the practice of medicine. Just as medicine has changed since those times, so has chiropractic. Today we not only treat the segments of the spine to normalize nerve transmission to organs and tissues, we also have gained direct and purposeful control of the autonomic nervous system. Thereby we are able to treat with amazing success practically all organs and tissues which are not diseased beyond the bounds of reasonable response.

There is only one sensible way to find out how your health problem may involve your autonomic nervous system and thereby be treated successfully. That is to visit your local chiropractors for a consultation and explanation of what prospects modern chiropractic holds for you.

Trinity Church Picnic Scheduled October 9

Ice cream and lemonade and pony-cart rides are in store for children at the Trinity Presbyterian church family picnic Saturday, Oct. 9, from 2 to 7 p.m. in Victory park.

But a baseball game, pitting teams of Edsel Curry and Roland Whited, with the Rev. Donald Ostrander as umpire, promises to keep adult interest high. The picnic is for all organizations and the Sunday school of the church, but is being planned by the Clipper club. Reservations are not necessary but would be helpful, and it is suggested that families planning to attend call Mrs. Jacob Oberlies at Custer 5-2909.

Assisting Mrs. Oberlies are Mmes. James Winslow, Harold Voegelien, Donald Berringer, Edsel Curry, George Vane, Whited, Shannon Marshall and George Parr. Mrs. Vane is in charge of games, which include a variety of relay races.

Officers of Clipper club are Mr. and Mrs. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Fairlamb, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Whited and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Stubbs.

EVEN PARENTS DOIN' THE MAMBO

They were doing the mambo. At least they called it the mambo — when 25 Hastings Ranch couples began a six-week brush-up course in ballroom dancing Friday night in the Eugene Field cafeteria.

Arranged by the PTA through the Pasadena Department of Recreation, the couples pay for their lessons, which run for six Friday nights in a row from 9 to 11 p.m.

And of one thing they can be sure. When the music's playing from now on, they may not be doing the mambo, but they surely won't be just standing around.

Plans for the forthcoming Halloween Carnival of the Don Benito PTA are progressing, announces Mrs. R. C. Carley, chairman. The event will be held Saturday, Oct. 30, on the school grounds from 3 to 8 p.m.

SCRAMBLED EGG TIME AT FIELD

Just as surely as October offers football games and the first of the chrysanthemums, it finds residents of Hastings Ranch eating scrambled eggs.

You laugh. You say, what in the world has October got to do with scrambled eggs? Just this, and it is hard to believe: Mothers of the little folk that people Eugene Field school, stick a tiny hole in one end of the breakfast eggs, carefully crack a hole the size of a nickel in the other and then carefully BLOW out the insides. Naturally, each morning mother thinks she will be able to lick the thing and get the yolk out whole. And if you hear a wild shout echoing through the fog about 7 a.m., some mother has probably succeeded. But for every whole-yolked fried egg for breakfast there are untold dozens scrambled.

Why? Don't you know about cascarones?

The children take the hard-boiled hollow eggs to school, color them and dye and fill them with confetti. Then they sell quicker than a fried egg in October at the Field carnival, which this year is coming October 23.

And the very mother who carefully blew and scrambled gets a carcarone cracked over her skull. Fun, huh?

LAS JARDINERAS, NEW HOME AND GARDEN CLUB, ORGANIZED IN HASTINGS RANCH

Hastings Ranch this week boasts a new organization, Las Jardineras, a group of 30 women who have joined to exchange ideas on beautifying home and garden and to hear speakers on subjects relating to California's famous indoor-outdoor living.

After a preliminary get-together this summer over coffee, the club held its first meeting last week at the home of Mrs. John Atkinson, 3795 Shadow Grove, chose its name adopted its constitution and by-laws and elected Mrs. Charles Ayres as president.

Other officers are Mrs. Peter G. Lubisch, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Coates, recording secretary; Mrs. John Calmer, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. E. S. Gregory, treasurer.

Husbands joined Las Jardineras for a progressive party Saturday night, starting the evening at the home of the Charles Coates, 3645 Hampton. Dinner was served in the garden of the Draper Jennings home, 3640 Shadow Grove, and dessert and dancing were enjoyed on the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayres, 3880 Canfield. Mrs. James White was in charge of party reservations.

Members of Las Jardineras, which is the Spanish feminine plural of "gardeners," are Mmes. Atkinson, Ayres, John Baker, Richard Beattie, Ogden Boden, Robert Buttane, John Calmer, Coates, Cummins, Gregory, Howard Hitchcock, Charles Hurter, Frank Kirksey, Jennings, Robert Langsett.

Also Mmes. William Lansill, Ray Lindman, Lubisch, Harry Masser, John McGraw, John Osborn, Russell Stubbs, Frank Todd, Jack Washburn and White.

Mrs. Ayres and Mrs. Beattie were co-hostesses for the October meeting will be Mmes. Baker, Boden and Buttane.

Plans Being Made for Holiday Decorations

Christmas may seem to be a bit in the future, but a group of upper Ranch residents are meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Johnston, 1250 Leonard, tonight to discuss plans for holiday outdoor decorations for their homes.

It is the hope of the group that a satisfactory plan may be decided upon whereby everyone in the upper Ranch may participate. All residents are encouraged to call either Mr. Johnston, Custer 5-2725, or Marge Thomas, Custer 5-2951, with suggestions for the project. The success of the event will depend on the cooperation and enthusiasm of all the neighbors so any suggestions will be appreciated.

14,000,000 V-8 FORDS

FORD, THE WORLD'S LARGEST V-8 BUILDER,
HAS PRODUCED MORE V-8'S THAN ALL OTHER MANUFACTURERS COMBINED!

It's America's largest selling V-8!

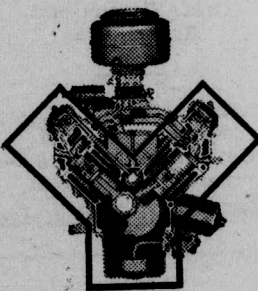

Ford introduced the V-8 engine to the low-price field . . . and is still the only car in its field to offer the smoothness and responsiveness of V-8 power. Add to this Ford's long, low silhouette, its clean, modern styling and its colorful, smartly-trimmed interiors, and it's easy to see why Ford is America's most popular V-8 car.

There's no engine so modern!

Ford's Y-block V-8 has an extra-deep block that extends below the crankshaft for more rigid support, longer engine life. New short-stroke design, turbo-wedge combustion chambers, free-turning overhead valves and exclusive Automatic Power Pilot make Ford's modern Y-block V-8 the smoothest, most responsive engine in Ford's field!

There's no V-8 priced so low!

Only Ford offers a V-8 in the low-price field! And no car near its price gives you Ball-Joint Suspension . . . for smooth riding and easier handling. Only Ford in its field, gives you Full-Circle Visibility . . . the most windshield area . . . the most rear window area . . . the most total glass area! It's no wonder Ford is America's best buy!

WOW!

It's not just a V-8
...it's a Y-block V-8

NO WONDER MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING FORDS THAN EVER BEFORE!

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT . . .
WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT!

Analysis of used car prices shows that Ford retains a greater proportion of its original cost when it comes time to sell than any other car in its field. This is further proof of the greater value you get from Ford.

"Unity in Diversity," Subject of Rev. Harry Leach Sermon

Preaching from the text "He Is Our Peace" in Ephesians 2:14, Rev. Harry P. Leach of the Sierra Madre Congregational church told of the Apostle Paul's distress over the divisions and even rivalries that existed among the early Christians. Rev. Mr. Leach declared that it always seemed easier to divide and separate than to bring together and unify.

One of the most amazing things about our American democracy is its infinite differences and yet its essential unity. We tear persons and platforms asunder before elections and then settle down with a firm faith in its future no matter what candidate wins. God bless America!

Our unity was not achieved easily. It was bought with a price. Perhaps it is part of the divine plan that the prizes of life, the ultimate worth of existence must come only thru painstaking effort. It doesn't take any effort to be snobbish and exclusive. There are those who would divide our communities and our nation and make of us first and second class citizens. There are those who get satisfaction out of being exclusive, believing themselves better than the rest. There are those who would divide our world and are suspicious at at-

Sermon Challenges Power of Sin, Disease and Death

God, infinite Life and Love, cannot be the author of anything unlike His eternal goodness, says the Sunday lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches. The question, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject.

Selections to be read from the Bible include this account of healing by Jesus from Matthew (8:23), "There came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "If sin, sickness, and death are as real as Life, Truth, and Love, then they must all be from the same source; God must be their author. . . . Is it possible, then, to believe that the evils which Jesus lived to destroy are real or the offspring of the divine will?" (p. 474).

The Golden Text is from Psalms (118:14,17): "The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation. . . . I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord."

"WITH GOD YOU CANNOT FAIL" SERMON

"With God You Cannot Fail" will be the subject of Sunday's sermon by Dr. Ethel Barnhart at Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd., Pasadena.

Oct. 14, the topic of the Thursday evening meeting will be "Experiencing Prosperity." Meetings are held at 8 p.m. at the church and are open to the public.

Membership Approves First Drawings of New Church

The quarterly business meeting of Bethany Church held last Friday night saw the approval by the membership of the preliminary drawings for the new church structure. The building committee headed by Henry Childers reported a unanimous decision in favor of the altered plans and pointed out that the total seating capacity of the new structure would be 691.

Dr. Schaper, moderator of the meeting, then announced that the joint boards of the church were backing him in a drive for a renewed sense of responsibility in giving for Christian causes by the membership. He pointed out that the boards had committed themselves to a systematic giving of at least 10 per cent of their income for God and that they urged all members to do the same.

The Wednesday night before Thanksgiving has been announced as the date for the Victory Dedication Rally, the time when all pledges and contributions should be in for the Building Fund. It was again pointed out that Bethany church receives no denominational or outside assistance in its construction project.

Dr. Robert Schaper to Speak at College

Dr. Robert Schaper, pastor of Bethany church, will be featured speaker at the Spiritual Life Emphasis Week to be held at Westmont College in Santa Barbara. He will address the daily chapel services Oct. 11-15, and will also be speaking for a special meeting on Wednesday night, Oct. 13 at the college. This is an annual event at Westmont, an interdenominational liberal arts college of around 350 students. Miss Marilyn Haley of Sierra Madre is enrolled as a freshman there.

NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED AT BETHANY CHURCH

The following were publicly received into membership at Bethany Church last Sunday morning: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralston Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ower, and Miss Sharron Rickman.

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems — By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: I have a vague idea of the meaning of 5-10-5 limits on automobile insurance but would appreciate your giving me the exact definition.

ANSWER: The 5-10-5 refers to thousands of dollars and indicates the amount of insurance carried for Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability. Under those limits the Insuring Company will cover your legal liability for personal bodily injury to the limit of $5000 for any one person or $10,000 for any one accident and your legal liability for property damage to the limit of $5000 for any one accident. P.S. That isn't enough insurance.

DIAL CU. 5-3495 FOR REPUBLICANS

Dick Thayer of the local Republican Club and owner of the Wistaria Vine is introducing to Sierra Madrans a new gimmick in the political promotional field. It is the new electronic device whereby those who dial CUster 5-3495 can hear the voices of Republican candidates for office in the November election.

During the week of Oct. 11 by calling the above phone number, you will be able to hear the voice of Congressman Hiestand. The week of Oct. 18, Governor Knight will deliver a more details regarding this phase of their work.

Paul Bauman, assistant engineer of the Los Angeles Flood Control District, and a member of the audience, brought to the attention of the Council the urgent need for traffic control in the vicinity of the Auburn basin construction. He complimented the Police Department on their control of traffic during the floods of last season, and hoped that the same vigilance would be observed now. He was optimistic in his view of the future situation. "The debris basins," he said, "will regulate storms of normal proportions, and will stop the bombardment of boulders. They are the heavy artillery of storms, but by Jan. 1 their menace will be eliminated. However, it is not possible within a few short months to prepare for a storm of the first magnitude—such a downpour as occurs only once in 50 years. Even the City of Los Angeles is not prepared for that."

"The only defense in that event," commented Mayor Louk, "is to pray and run."

KIWANISANS SEE FILM

A sailboat race to Honolulu in color film was highlighted at the Kiwanis luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Woman's Clubhouse. The 30-minute film, made during the Honolulu races in July, 1953, is the production of four crew members who were aboard the 160-foot schooner, "Goodwill," which was the first to finish the 1953 Honolulu race.

The story of the film included crew training, take-off for the race, and the making of a new sail while at sea. Arrangements for the showing were made through R. C. Lewis, Sierra Madre banker and sports sailor.

RASMUSSEN'S NEW BUILDING

Keating who owns the hotel building, was handled through Realtor John C. Loomis Jr. Manuel de la Torre is the contractor for the construction work, which is not expected to start until next week at which time the tree-removal job now in progress may be completed.

John Rasmussen was a retired rancher from Plainview, Neb., when he moved with his wife to Pasadena in 1945, but after a few weeks of retirement he was advised by his doctor that his only illness was in being away from business. With this in mind, he bought into their present business location at a time when many new store owners found it difficult to buy sufficient stock for their shops.

Mrs. Rasmussen, who is her husband's business partner, says that almost the best they could do at first was to "buy a waiting list." They give much credit, however, to the cooperation of the dealers who helped them to eventually enlarge their stock to its present capacity. Their home-appliances line is now one of the most extensive in this area.

Wages and salaries paid to employees in the United States increased by $142 billion in the period 1939 through 1952.

It's easy finding reasons why other folks should be patient. —George Elliot.
